

Measures at Hiyoshi Campus relating to the “Use of campus facilities (from the Fall Semester)” (June 2, 2020)

[Keio University Hiyoshi Campus Office] updated on January 8, 2021

Keio University has issued a separate announcement on the “Use of campus facilities (from the Fall Semester).” Accordingly, the following measures will be put in place at Hiyoshi Campus based on this policy. Please cooperate with the prescribed measures to prevent infections (wear masks, disinfect hands, undergo temperature checks when entering buildings, record entry to buildings, etc.) that will continue to be implemented when entering each building on campus. We ask for everyone’s kind understanding in light of the current situation while apologizing for the inconvenience. Please also be aware that the handling of the above may change without forewarning.

○Access management regulations for each building on Hiyoshi Campus <from September 28, 2020 until further notice>

[Area A]

Third Building, Fourth Building (Section A, Section B, Independence Wing), Sixth Building, Cafeteria Building, Student Union Building, Raiosha (excluding Faculty Lounge), Hiyoshi Library

→ Area management will be conducted at the time of entry. Please enter upon completion of measures to prevent infections via the entrance (marked ☆ on the attached map) located on the side of the cherry blossom tree-lined approach to the Fourth Building: Independence Wing. Entry at the other two locations (marked ○ on the attached map) will only be permitted if you cooperated with measures to prevent infections earlier the same day. (Researchers who will use the Raiosha should confirm the separate announcement concerning entry to the campus areas issued by the Hiyoshi Office of Student Services.)

[Area B] Fujiyama Memorial Hall, Second Building, Seventh Building

→ Area management will be conducted at the time of entry. Please enter upon cooperating with measures to prevent infections via the entrance (marked ☆ on attached map) of the Fujiyama Memorial Hall.

*From January 22, area management will be suspended and measures to prevent infections will be implemented for each building.

[Collaboration Complex (dedicated floors of the Graduate School of Business Administration (KBS), Graduate School of System Design and Management (SDM), and Graduate School of Media Design (KMD), including the Kyoseikan Library)]

→ Please comply with the instructions of each graduate school.

[Access management by building: Eighth Building, Sports Building, Keio University Health Center, Sports Medicine Research Center, Hiyoshi Commemorative Hall]

→ Measures to prevent infections will be conducted as before at each building.

*Members of the public are kindly asked to refrain from using the Co-op Cafeteria, Greens' Terrace, and Faculty Lounge until further notice.

*Note: it will be decided hereafter whether to expand the scope of business operations or extend the business hours based on ongoing trends in the status of infections, etc. Additionally, other closure periods may also be scheduled.

Please cooperate with the measures to prevent infections based on the same criteria employed at other buildings, etc., that will be implemented when entering the Hiyoshi Campus Office. The acceptance of applications for the external loan of facilities or entry to campus for tours (outdoor), etc., will be suspended for the foreseeable duration of the access management regulations accompanying the partial resumption of face-to-face classes.

- All persons passing through the campus will be requested to take a partial detour because of passageway restrictions resulting from the area management. We kindly ask for your understanding and cooperation in light of the current circumstances. Furthermore, we entreat everyone that passes through the campus to continue to abide by measures to prevent the spread of infections such as observing cough etiquette. Additionally, we kindly ask everyone to be aware of and cooperate with the instructions, information, etc., issued by the national and Kanagawa prefectural governments when passing through the campus, and that you do not remain on the campus grounds any longer than is necessary.
